Airport Announces Winners of School Mural Contest

Charleston, S. C. - The Charleston County Aviation Authority (CCAA) announced the winners of the high school mural contest today. The winners are from North Charleston High and West Ashley High. The artists from North Charleston High are Cameron Barbee, Kendra Smith, and Jarod White. The artists from West Ashley High are Kelsee Kasten, Audry Singletary, and Blair Zelasko. Art teachers are: Ms. Alice Finkelstein, North Charleston High, and Ms. Chris Donna, West Ashley High.

“It is an honor for me to recognize these talented students. We are fortunate to have these students in our public school system, and appreciate the time they spent creating our murals,” said David G. Jennings, Chairman of the Charleston County Aviation Authority.

The Mural Contest is sponsored jointly each year by the Charleston County School District and CCAA. The murals are 8' x 12' and are exhibited in the atrium of the Charleston International Terminal building for a period of one year.
